

Public Events Council

Targets of Opportunity: Taxes/Fees on Events

Submission Form

IAEE is assembling a comprehensive directory of tax and fee requirements that are now in place throughout the United States in various municipalities. This information is a useful tool to allow you to properly plan and budget for your next public event. Knowing which cities are charging you and/or your exhibitor's taxes and fees will also help you make informed decisions about the venues for your future events.

Please take a few moments now to share what you know about current fees and taxes that events, organizers and/or exhibitors may be required to pay.

1. Name of the community, (e.g., city of..., county of..., state of...):

2. State in which Tax/Fee is required:

3. Is it categorized as a: FEE TAX

4. What the tax or fee is called:

5. Name the office (not the person) to which the fee is owed:

6. Is it paid by: Event organizer Exhibitor Other, please specify:

7. If a fee, what is the cost?

8. What is the cost basis (how is the fee arrived at)?

9. If a tax, what is the percentage?

10. What is the cost basis (how is the tax obligation calculated)?

Additional comments (please add any details that you think might be helpful):

If you are aware of fees and/or taxes in any other jurisdiction, please complete a new description for each.

Thank you for helping IAEE and the Public Events Council to compile this important information...the information spreadsheet gathered to date can be found at the IAEE Web site, www.iaee.com under the Resources tab, Public Events section.