Flexible
Online, flex term, day and evening classes available for busy professionals

Experienced
Faculty members are industry leaders

Affordable
Three-hour classes start at $177, plus the cost of books

Interactive
Students participate in industry events, such as IAEE Expo Expo and IMEX America

Credit Programs:
• A.A.S. in Hospitality, Exhibition and Event Management
• Meeting and Events Certificate
• Hospitality and Tourism Certificate

Continuing Education/Non-Credit Programs:
• Meeting and Events Certificate
• Hospitality and Tourism Certificate

Individual Professional Development:
Any course in the program may be taken and used as professional development, including but not limited to:
• Customer Sales and Service
• Introduction to Trade Shows and Expos
• Introduction to Convention and Meeting Management
• Special Event Design
• Meetings and Convention Law and Ethics
• Applied Conventions and Meeting Management
• Applied Industry Technology

richlandcollege.edu/heem

Funding for this project was provided through the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board with funds from the Carl D. Perkins Career and Technical Improvement Act of 2006.