

IAEE aims to offer our members effective solutions. The transitional membership is one of the many ways we're supporting members through tough economic times. If you are between positions and have been a member representative of IAEE for two years or more, you may continue your IAEE and chapter membership for up to one year from your separation date with your employer, or until you secure another position – whichever comes first.

To use this one-time IAEE membership benefit, please provide the information requested below and return it to IAEE's Membership Team. Upon receiving the form, we will update your member record to ensure you will continue receiving all benefits of membership. Your international and chapter membership will continue, as will your subscriptions to IAEE's news, discussion groups and online member communities. In addition, you will be eligible for a full meeting registration to Expo! Expo! IAEE's Annual Meeting & Exhibition at the student price during this transitional period of membership.

Be sure to visit IAEE's Career Center at www.exhibitionindustryjobs.com to upload your resume, review job postings by industry employers and take advantage of IAEE's career resources such as resume writing services, career coaches, mentor program, tips and more!

Once you have accepted a new position, please contact IAEE's Membership Department to update your contact information.
